

CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPEAN PERFORMING ARTS MARKET CEEPAM
21 & 22 November 2006 London

Feeast invites you to participate in an artistic feast at the Riverside Studios, London

FEEAST is delighted to be creating the first UK Central and Eastern European Performing Arts Market on Tuesday 21 and Wednesday 22 November 2006 at The Riverside Studios, Crisp Road, London W6 9RL

CEEPAM aims to create a pool of artistic resources for British, Western, Central and East European arts practitioners. It will facilitate the development of an international network of organisations, artists, producers, venue managers and festivals towards the creation of exchange, collaboration and long term relationship.

CEEPAM will be an attractive and inviting meeting place of contemporary artistic creativity and a framework for networking and communication. It will be an open platform supporting mutual understanding of cultural trends and artistic forms and their potential for working together.

Aims of CEEPAM

- To provide a platform for Central and Eastern European countries to promote their performing arts companies and artists and raise awareness of what they have to offer the world
- To facilitate the development of communication, relationships and collaborations between different organisations, artists, promoters, producers, venues and festivals
- To showcase high quality representation of Central and Eastern European performing arts
- To facilitate cross border and cross art-form collaboration and productions
- To encourage Cultural Institutes, Centres and Embassies to build relationships with the UK cultural sector and between themselves

Who is CEEPAM for?

Cultural operators and opinion formers, artistic directors, venue managers, producers, representatives of Embassies, Cultural Institutes and Centres and funders: in fact anyone involved in the performing arts world within the UK and internationally

High professional experienced marketing team working on CEEPAM to make it a successful experience for all concerned.

Artistic ingredients of CEEPAM

• Market place/exhibition

Co-ordinated by a professional exhibition company, we will create attractive booths for exhibitors.

Each will have:

- Two meter square, three sided display booth for visual displays
- Small table/stand for a DVD player/ laptop, etc
- Web access network card for your laptop
- Basic furniture

There will be a large storage cupboard on site for shared use storage of your printed material over the two days.

You will have the services of International Signmakers, RHM to create outstanding display panels at subsidised rates. Further equipment or special requirements will be dealt with efficiently and effectively.

• Live showcases

On site in Studio 2

Selected performance arts groups will participate in a programmed showcase on both days.

• Discussion platforms

On each of the two days CEEPAM delegates and exhibitors will be able to choose from a programme of platform discussions led by key performing arts professionals. Themes will include Central and Eastern European performing arts in the 21st century and best practice in creating intercultural understanding and creative collaboration.

Cafe/Bar area will additionally be available as a location for informal discussions in convivial surroundings.

CEEPAM is produced by Feast with the support of Visiting Arts

Your involvement

Booths at CEEPAM 2006 can be booked for the subsidised rate of £250 plus VAT. This will give you access to all additional events.

How to book

Please see attached form and confirm your participation by 31 July 2006.

Payment shall be made in sterling by either cheque, direct transfer into Feast account or by banker's draft.

Contact info@feast.com or call +44 783 727 8302 with any queries you may have and to reserve a place

Join the FEEAST and be a part of a new and exciting development for the arts at CEEPAM

FEEAST - Festival of Central and Eastern European Theatre

47-49 Wood Street, Barnet, Herts EN5 4BS www.feast.com